Samuel Goldwyn Presents
Rex Beach's
"The Girl from Outside"
You're the finest girl in the world and I am a th---!!
And in the end he gave his life to save the man she loved, as lightly as once he would have taken the life of any man who crossed his path. Rex Beach is no cynic. He believes in the race. He knows there is a substratum of gold in the blackest heart. The Kid proves it. He is a thief—he is one of a gang of thieves—all of them redeemed from dishonor and shame by a young and innocent girl playing a lone hand in a land that knows only one type of woman!
A peach of a story!—a Beach of a story!—a story of love and honor rising from the mud of primitive passions and surging through reels of nip-and-tuck suspense, told by one of the greatest photo-dramatists of his time, and screened with the scenic fidelity and crystalline photography of Goldwyn!
